

Under the Same Management

CHARACTERS:

PROPS: none specified

COSTUMES: Street clothes

SETTING: Anywhere

A: Hey, Harry. Long time no see. How have you been?

B: Fine, Are you still going to church?

A: Faithfully. It's the high point of my week.

B: Same church?

A: Of course.

B: Well then, what's new with you?

A: My 10th anniversary. That's pretty impressive in this world of divorce. My wife and I have been married for 10 years. I want to take her somewhere special for our anniversary. A really nice place to eat. I know you're up on restaurants in the area. What do you recommend?

B: I'll tell you some of the criteria I use when I choose a restaurant. Some of these places are good once or twice but then they get under new management and the quality of the food or the cleanliness goes downhill. I go to stable places that have the same manager time after time.

A: You ought to come to church with me Sunday then.

B: I don't follow you.

A: My church is your kind of place. We've been under same management for over 2000 years
