WHO KILLED JFK?

In home, Private Party scenarios

Who shot President Kennedy? Play a historic person from 1963 while getting to the bottom of the assassination. For groups of 6 to 10.

The Will: When rich old Mrs. Wetherington dies the family and staff are shocked at her will. The bulk of the estate would go to the person who fingered her murderer. Skeletons in closets, blackmail and underhanded dealings all abound at the family estate as everyone points fingers and declares their innocence. For groups of 6-10 guests

Who killed Prospector Pete?

Prospector Pete is found shot in the back at his mining claim with a peck of people possibly involved including his wife Betsy, the Raindance Kid, Hoss Steel, and Lily Lang Tree (or is it Land Tree?) For 6 to 11 players.

MESA MURDER MYSTERIES

Intrigue in the harem may have led to attempted murder. Who wants King Xerxes dead? Loosely based on the book of Esther. For up to 13 players.

Who offed the nosey reporter dame that asked one question too many? For 8-12 players and can accommodate groups with few men.

Somebody put a harpoon through Sandy Beechnut's heart and its up to your group to get to the bottom of this mess that involves politicians, payoffs and a pin up calendar. 8-11 participants.

On the road to Jericho, Jake gets robbed and would have died if a kindly traveler hadn't stopped to render assistance. Was this a random act of violence or planned revenge? Will he recover? Can the suspects figure it out before the Roman authorities intervene? The suspects are detectives in this almost murder mystery based on the parable of the Good Samaritan and featuring characters from other assorted parables. Great for church groups. For 9 players
