

Psalms 103

A choral reading to praise the Lord

Praise the LORD,

O my soul.

O LORD my God,

you are very great;

you are clothed with

splendor and majesty

The Lord is compassionate and gracious,

slow to anger and rich in faithful love.

He has not dealt
with us as our sins
deserve or repaid us
according to our offenses.

A photograph of a parched, cracked earth surface. The ground is a mix of light brown and tan, with deep, dark, irregular cracks forming a network across the entire scene. In the background, a chain-link fence is visible, along with some dry, tangled branches and a black plastic chair. The overall scene conveys a sense of extreme drought and environmental hardship.

For He knows what we are made of,
remembering that we are dust.

As for man, his days are like
grass— he blooms
like a flower of the field; when the wind passes over
it, it vanishes, and
its place is no longer known.

But from eternity to eternity the Lord's faithful love is toward those who fear Him, and His righteousness toward the grandchildren of those who keep His covenant

The life of mortals is like grass, they flourish like a flower of the field;
the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

Psalms 103:15-16

A large, glowing full moon is the central focus, set against a deep blue night sky. The moon's surface shows some detail, and its light reflects on the dark, rippling water below. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Psalms 103:11

For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His faithful love toward those who fear Him.

As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our sins from us.

Psalm 103:12

*As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed
our transgressions
from us.*

Psalm 103:12
