The Lord told Ananias, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street. Ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying. In a vision Saul has seen YOU come and place his hands on him. In the vision, YOU placed Your hands on Saul so he could see again."

"Lord," Ananias answered, "I've heard many reports about this man. They say he has done great harm to your holy people in Jerusalem. Now he has come here to arrest all those who worship you. The chief priests have given him authority to do this."

But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! I have chosen this man to work for me. He will announce my name to the Gentiles and to their kings. He will also announce my name to the people of Israel. (Acts 9)

What should Ananias do?

LEFT: Ananias listens to his fear and does NOT go.

RIGHT: Ananias listens to God and goes.

Paul was on a ship when a terrible storm came up. For 14 days it scared the people on board including Paul. The people gave up hope of being saved.

Paul stood up in front of them. "Men," he said, "you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete. Then you would have avoided this harm and loss. Now I beg you to be brave. Not one of you will die. Only the ship will be destroyed. I belong to God and serve him. Last night his angel stood beside me.

The angel said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must go on trial in front of Caesar. God has shown his grace by sparing the lives of all those sailing with you.' Men, continue to be brave. I have faith in God. It will happen just as he told me. (Acts 27)

What should the people on the boat do?

LEFT: They should listen to Paul and trust God.

RIGHT: They should scream and cry like babies

Pewter and John healed a lame man in Jesus' name. The leaders saw how bold Peter and John were. They also realized that Peter and John were ordinary men with no training. This surprised the leaders. They realized that these men had been with Jesus. The leaders talked things over.

"What can we do with these men?" they asked. "Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed an unusual miracle. We can't say it didn't happen. We have to stop this thing. It must not spread any further among the people. We have to warn these men. They must never speak to anyone in Jesus' name again."

Once again the leaders called in Peter and John. They commanded them not to speak or teach at all in Jesus' name. (Acts 3-4)

What should Peter and John do?

LEFT: They should listen to the leaders and never speak in Jesus' name.

RIGHT: They should keep speaking in Jesus' name.

Jesus died and was buried. Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. They saw an angel who said,

"Don't be afraid. I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here! He has risen, just as he said he would! Come and see the place where he was lying. Go quickly! Tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead. He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

So the women hurried away from the tomb. They were afraid, but they were filled with joy. (Matthew 28)

What should Mary and Mary do?

LEFT: They tell the other disciples Jesus is alive.

RIGHT: They should keep the good news that Jesus is alive to themselves?
