

Society Shocker!

Trueblood family ambushed by waitress

Society darling, Truman Trueblood IV shocked his patrician family on Thursday by announcing his Las Vegas marriage to a waitress he met at an Applebee's restaurant. Up until Thursday, "Tru" (as he was dubbed by his fraternity brothers at Princeton) was considered the most eligible bachelor in the old money families on the East Coast.

"He never was right after he fell off that horse at that polo match" wailed his mother, Bertha Blueblood. "The children's hospital may have saved his life but somehow they didn't get his brain back together. The entire family is shocked, simple shocked, that Tru would bring trailer trash into our noble family." (Con't page 34)

It's Official!!!!!!

"When Pigs Fly" has gone platinum!!

Betty Blue's song has topped the Country charts for 12 weeks and shows no hint of slowing down..

"I owe it all to my Momma." gushed the 16 year old singing sensation from the back hills of West Virginia.

Although the young star is crazy about her pigs, inside sources say Miss Betty Blue is absolutely devoted to her momma. She once walked 17 miles in the snow to fetch her momma's corn cob pipe that fell off the back of the family chevy.

"I'm gonna make my momma prouder than a peacock when she gits her next momma's day present. I'd do anything for my momma"

Zeta Rho Sorority House of Vassar College

To: Miss Delilah Sampson
Bourbon St., New Orleans, Louisiana, 34529

4/1/86

Delilah Lou,

Darling, I am afraid I have distressing news. I hate to unsettle your mind just before your wedding to Mr. Robert Texaco but we felt you should be aware of this brazen attempt to sully your good name.

Some disreputable man claiming to be your brother came to our sorority house and demanded we give him your address. He claimed you were the base descendent of a river boat gambler whose family had continued in a life of crime even today.

Vassar girls are of the highest quality and a slight to you is a slight to all of us so we called the boys at Kappa Delta and they took care of him.

With all our love,

Bimmy Mae

Secretary of Zeta Rho Sorority, Vassar College
